

The Medical Nutrition International Industry (MNI) welcomes Micrel as new member

BRUSSELS, 10 January 2022. – Today, the Medical Nutrition International Industry (MNI) is glad to announce that Micrel Medical Devices SA has joined the association as an associate member company. Micrel Medical Devices SA is a global medical technology company founded in 1980. Ever since its creation, Micrel offers a variety of cutting-edge devices for a range of therapies.

Manuela Schaflechner, MNI President, welcomed Micrel and stated: "We are pleased to welcome Micrel to MNI, a company that consistently innovates for 40 years now in the design and production of ambulatory infusion devices and services. The addition of Micrel within MNI will only strengthen our mission to support the quality of nutritional interventions and services to best serve the interests of patients, healthcare professionals and healthcare providers "

Alexandros Tsoukalis, Chief Executive Officer, stated on behalf of Micrel Medical Devices: "We are pleased to become an associate member company of the MNI and look forward to contributing its vision of achieving better care through better nutrition, across all ages and healthcare settings. Our ambulatory infusion devices and remote patient infusion monitoring systems are designed to enhance the mobility of patients whilst receiving treatment, with the aim of improving their quality of life."

Patient freedom and the benefits that it brings has been at the heart of everything Micrel still does today. The devices are designed to enhance mobility both in the home and hospital whilst receiving treatment. With the addition of connection technology to the infusion devices it enables healthcare professionals and providers to remotely monitor the infusion status and support patients. This advancement from Micrel continues their story to improve infusion practices around the world.
